Monthly Prayer Focus for December

The season of Advent can often be a time of faith renewal. As we prepare for the celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ, we can also prepare for a renewal of Christ in our hearts. During the month of December, 2024, please pray for the spirit of renewal to take hold in our hearts.

- Please pray that Christ will come afresh into each of our hearts, not just for the holiday season, but with a life changing renewal of thought, word, and deed.
- Please pray that as our family and friends gather, each of us will have an opportunity to tell someone about God’s purpose in sending Jesus into the world, or to remind someone who has fallen away from the faith that Jesus came into the world for them.
- Please pray that there will be “Peace on earth and good will to all men.” It is a huge concept, but please pray that each of us will have the courage to do our part in bringing about a spirit of peace. Maybe we will have an opportunity to exhibit God’s love in a situation that could end up very differently without our example and witness to that Love.

Daily “God Hunt” Sightings

It is our sincere hope that you are still going on a daily “God Hunt.” Every day please look for one or more of the following:

- Any obvious answer to prayer, or...
- Any special evidence of God’s care, or...
- Any help to do God’s work in the world, or...
- Any unusual linkage or timing.

Sunday Morning Worship
First Sunday after Christmas

December 29, 2024

Worship Theme: “God listens intently to the fervent prayers of His people.”

We welcome children of all ages in our Worship Service. At the Information Center in the rear of the Sanctuary, we offer children a “Book Bucket” with books and activities for their use. Parents, please do not be concerned if your young child cries. We believe that the cries of young children signal that the church is alive, well, and destined to continue for generations to come.

Prelude: Infant Holy, Infant Lowly arr. Patterson

Infant holy, infant lowly, for his bed a cattle stall;
Oxen lowing, little knowing Christ the babe is Lord of all.
Swift are winging angels singing, noels ringing, tidings bringing;
Christ the Babe is Lord of all.

Flocks were sleeping, shepherds keeping vigil till the morning new.
Saw the glory, heard the story, tidings of a gospel true.
Thus rejoicing, free from sorrow, praises voicing greet the morrow,
Christ the Babe is Lord of all.

Hymn of Reflection: O Little Town of Bethlehem ... FOREST GREEN

How silently, how silently, the wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts the blessings of his heaven.
No ear may hear his coming, but in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive him, still the dear Christ enters in.

O holy Child of Bethlehem, descend to us we pray.

Cast out our sin and enter in, be born in us today.

We hear the Christmas angels the great glad tidings tell;

O come to us, abide with us, our Lord Emmanuel.

Prayers of Confession..... Thomas Brooks

We will begin by praying a unison prayer of corporate confession.

Then, we will join in silently, confessing our personal sins.

Eternal God, You have called us into covenant, yet our commitment is shallow and our love is weak. We place lesser concerns high on our list of priorities and give You whatever time and energy are left.

Please forgive our sins, O God, and turn us again toward Your purposes. Please reform our lives by renewing our dedication to You. By Your Holy Spirit, please give us a new sense of our calling, a new zeal in our faithfulness, a new compassion toward those in need, and a new appreciation for Your love for us in Jesus Christ our Lord.

May we always be open to the reforming and refreshing wind of Your Holy Spirit. We pray through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Note: The Congregation should please silently confess their sins.

Assurance of Pardon (responsively) Thomas Brooks

Liturgist: If you confess with your mouth, “Jesus is Lord,” and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

Congregation: For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved. Anyone who trusts in him will never be put to shame. Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. —Romans 10:9-11, 13

Thanks be to God!

Note: The Congregation should please stand for the Hymn, if able to do so.
