An Evangelical Presbyterian Church

Sunday Morning Worship Sixth Sunday in Lent—Palm Sunday April 13, 2025

Worship Theme: “God desires fruitfulness, loyalty, and obedience from his people. Jesus’s sacrificial death at the hands of His people, on behalf of all peoples, reconciled us to God, and created a new people for Himself, in one Spirit.”

We welcome children of all ages in our Worship Service.
At the Information Center in the rear of the Sanctuary, we offer children a “Book Bucket” with books and activities for their use.
Parents, please do not be concerned if your young child cries.
We believe that the cries of young children signal that the church is alive, well, and destined to continue for generations to come.

Welcome, Announcements, and

Prelude: All Glory, Laud and Honor arr. Parks

All glory, laud, and honor to thee, Redeemer, King,

Hymn of Reflection:

When I Survey the Wondrous Cross Watts/Gregorian

When I survey the wondrous cross
on which the Prince of Glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
and pour contempt on all my pride.

Were the whole realm of nature mine,
that were a present far too small.
Love so amazing, so divine,
demands my soul, my life, my all.

Prayers of Confession..... Thomas Brooks

We will begin by praying a unison prayer of corporate confession.
Then, we will join in silently confessing our personal sins.

Our Father, like the people who greeted Jesus, as He entered Jerusalem and later shouted: “Crucify

him”—we acknowledge that we are fickle people, who often deny Christ in our thoughts, words, and deeds.

As we remember the events of Jesus' final week, we ask You to help us see ourselves for what we are: sinners in need of a Savior.

We thank You, O God, that You are willing to hear us, as we confess our corporate sins honestly before You. And now, with a clear understanding of Your mercy, we individually and silently confess our personal sins to You.

Note: The Congregation should please silently confess their sins.

Assurance of Pardon (responsively) Thomas Brooks

Liturgist If we confess our sins to him, he can be depended on to forgive us and to cleanse us from every wrong. —1 John 1:9

Congregation: So, there is now no condemnation awaiting those who belong to Christ Jesus. For the power of the life-giving Spirit—and this power is mine through Christ Jesus—has freed me from the vicious circle of sin and death.

—Romans 8:1-2

Thanks be to God!

After the Worship Service

We invite you to join us for a time of fellowship with coffee and cookies after the Worship Service in the rear of the sanctuary.

If you have any special needs in your life and you wish to have a time of personal prayer, please speak to Pastor Benj, or to one of our Ruling Elders— Zachary Harvey, Robert LeSuer, or Amy Stearns—and he or she will arrange for someone to meet with you today and pray with you.

Monthly Prayer Focus

During the month of April, let us pause our prayer petitions and give thanks to God for the many blessings He has bestowed on us personally, and also on Redeemer. Please give thanks to God for:

- Being able to know Him through His written Word and through the life of Jesus Christ here on earth.
- The love of Jesus Christ, for His redeeming work on the cross, for the gift of faith, and for the reality that He has called us to be included in His Kingdom.
- Our families, including our Redeemer family.
- Placing us in a country where the standard of living grants us plenty of opportunities for food, water, and physical comfort. Let us declare with joy that all that we have comes from God, and that we are grateful.
- Living in an area that is safe from earthquakes, hurricanes, wildfires, dangerous animals, floods, drought, and other physical dangers. Yes, we must admit that we experience significant snow once in a while, but that is a minor threat compared to these other calamitous events.
